3rd Annual Practice-Based Research Network (PBRN) Convocation

“Discovering the Power & Potential of Translational Research”

October 22, 2011

Horizon Hill Conference Center
4431 Horizon Hill Blvd
San Antonio, Tx. 78229

Sponsored by:

NIH Award UL 1RR025767
HRSA Award #D54HP16444
Convocation Highlights

Highlights at the 2011 Convocation will include:

- Keynote Speaker, Michael Dulin, MD, PhD, Director of the Mecklenburg Area Partnership for Primary Care Research (MAPPR). He will give examples from North Carolina on successful ways community clinicians can participate in comparative-effectiveness research.

- Rapid Fire Research Updates from six practice-based research networks and our South Central AHEC, addressing SSRI treatments, mental health appointment compliance, clinical electronic infrastructure for research, and more!

- Poster and Resource Fair, featuring the latest research findings from PBRNs and friends of PBRNs as well as exhibits with helpful resources for the busy community clinician. Be sure to answer 5 questions for the iPad 2 Drawing!

- Individual Network Meetings, with time set aside for each PBRN and new investigators to do their business: review current study findings; plan dissemination and application of results; and prioritize future research.

- Networking/Scavenger Hunt, to promote communication, collaboration, curiosity, creative thinking, and courageous new research ideas. Intermingle! Inspire! Ignite! Door prizes will be awarded! Turn in 5 research questions and 2 exhibitor slips to the registration desk. Prizes include: iPad 2 and 7 $100 Visa Gift Cards!

The Resource Fair is a display of materials, programming and tools in one location. It is designed to inform community based physicians and other health professionals about local organizations and groups that offer help and information, usually for free or at a low cost that can be passed along to patients and their caregivers.

Our Resource Fair provides materials focused on multiple health issues that have been reported to be of high concern among physicians that could likely be supported through programs offered in the community.

Some materials are bilingual, but not all. Websites for these materials will be listed on a flyer for future reference.

These are only a few of the resources available and do not reflect all geographic areas of South Texas.

Resource Fair sponsored by:

South Central AHEC
