

Please join the School of Medicine Research Dean’s Office for an interactive Patient Centered Outcomes Research Institute (PCORI) workshop. This opportunity is in support of the SOM Research Strategic Plan and was organized as a result of faculty feedback. In addition to a discussion panel of UTHSCSA faculty who have received PCORI funding or served on PCORI review panels, this workshop will also serve as an opportunity for future PCORI team development and networking among faculty interested in submitting to PCORI.

Event Date and Time: January 6, 2015, 11:00a.m.-1:00p.m.

Location: TBD

If you are interested in participating in this exciting opportunity, please email SOMResearch@uthscsa.edu to register your attendance, or with any questions you may have.

The workshop agenda is below and lunch will be provided.
